

RESUME: Teacher/Lecturer/Tutor

Alexander Guth

1561-55 Street; Brooklyn, NY 11219

azg@azgmusical.com / 718-972-4611

GOAL:

Interesting and challenging educational position where you can see students grow and develop as a person.

EXPERIENCE:

2017- Present

Freelance teaching, substituting and tutoring of Math grades 1-9.
From Fall-18 through Summer-19, taught Math & Literacy under Title-1.

2004— Present

Cong. Ateres Moshe ; Brooklyn, NY

Director of Childrens Educational Program

Duties and functions include the following:

- Teaching of ancient philosophies.
- Character building, ethics and morality.
- Teaching and mentoring of students 7-12 years old.

2008- Present

Cong. Toldas Avrohom Yitzchock; Brooklyn, NY

Director of Childrens Educational Program

Duties and functions included the following:

- Supervision of children's prayer groups.
- Coordinate and promote children activities.

2014- Present

Khal Ungvar; Brooklyn, NY

Director of Childrens Activities

Duties and functions included the following:

- Supervision of children's prayer groups.
- Weekly lectures on ethical and religious topics.

2000— 2014

Beth Shifra Organization; Brooklyn, NY

Adult Education Lecturer

Duties and functions included the following:

- Adult classes on ancient philosophies.
- Lectures on contemporary ethical issues.
- Full one week seminar on modern morality vs. religion.

EDUCATION:

Brooklyn College; Brooklyn, NY

- B.S. in Computers and Information Sciences
- Summa Cum Laude, Alpha Sigma Lambda, Dean's Honor List
- Science & Math Index 4.00 of 4.00, Scholastic Index 3.87